

Government Arts & Commerce College Kachhal

“Udisha”

Annual Report For the Academic Year: 2021-22

Total 12 lectures were delivered by expert during the A.Y. 2021-22 under the UDISHA head.

Government Arts & Commerce College Kachhal
UDISHA Cell
Academic Year 2021-22
Sr. No.	Name of Resource Person	College Name	Title	Date
1	Jayesh Malhar	Assi. Prof. of English in Government Arts College Umarpada	Basic English	11-10-2021
2	Dr. Pinakin Joshi	Assi. Prof. of Gujarati in Government Arts College Dediapada	Reading Skill	12-10-2021
3	Rajesh Bhatt	Librarian, Rofel MBA, Valsad	Reading Skill	20-10-2021
4	Dr. Meghna R. Patel	Government Arts College Sagbara	Positive Attitude	08-10-2021
5	Mr. Rakeshkumar Naika	Government Arts and Commerce College Vansada	Positive Attitude	03-03-2022
6	Dr. Dipak Chaudhari	Shree ABV Government Arts and Commerce College Vankal	Exam Preparation	12-10-2021
7	Mr. Dharamraj tembhare	Government Arts and Commerce College, Khergam	Interpersonal Skill	26-02-2022
8	Dr. Snehal Mistry (Principal)	Vidyabharti Trust College Of BBA and BCA, UmraKh	C V Writing	14-10-2021
9	Dr. Manish Pathak	Vidyabharti Trust College of MBA, UmraKh	interview skills	13-10-2021
10	Divyesh Gandhi	Naranlala College Navsari	interview skills	13-08-2021
11	Mr. Jigar V. Parmar	Government Arts and Commerce College, Khergam	interview skills	26-02-2022
12	Dr. Rakeshkumar M Ganvit	Government Arts and Commerce College, Vansada	interview skills	03-03-2022

68 students attended the One-day seminar on the theme “Positive Attitude” organized by Government Arts & Commerce College, Kachhal, the objective of which was to inculcate a habit of positive attitude amongst the students of the college. The seminar highlighted the power of positive thinking, and the difference it can make to a person’s life and career, with the aim of empowering students to become smarter, healthier and employable.

Dr. Meghna R. Patel, from Government Arts College Sagbara, was invited to impart a motivating talk for the seminar, and she was successful in helping students realise the importance of positive attitude. The session was highly appreciated by the students as well.

128 students attended the One-day seminar on the theme “Basic English” organized by Government Arts & Commerce College, Kachhal. The objective of the seminar was to provide an overview of the important aspects of English language.

Prof. Jayesh Malhar, from Government Arts College Umarpada, was invited to take the charge of the seminar. Students were provided clarity on the basic grammatical aspects of the English language, and they benefited from the session in a way that it empowered them to become more mindful of their use of professional English.

The programme was very well received, and the students displayed an eagerness to be a part of more such seminars to enhance their linguistic capabilities.

117 students attended the One-day seminar on the theme “Reading Skills” organized by Government Arts & Commerce College, Kachhal. The objective of the seminar was to aid the students in enhancing their English-reading and comprehension abilities, with the eventual aim of moulding them into successful professionals.

Dr. Pinakin Joshi, from Government Arts College Dediapada, was invited to deliver a session on enhancing reading skills. His methods gave the students much-needed clarity and direction in improving their reading skills.

The session was a resounding success.

64 students participated in the One-day seminar on the theme “Interpersonal Skills” organized by Government Arts & Commerce College, Kachhal. The objective of the session was to enhance the interpersonal skills of the students to prepare them for a successful career. Interpersonal skills have been consistently rated as a major drawback in the educated employed sector, and training in improving it is crucial.

Dr. Dipak Chaudhari, from Shree ABV Government Arts and Commerce College Vankal, guided the students to improve their skills, and the students gained valuable insights in the areas where they were found to be lacking.

103 students participated in the One-day seminar on the theme “Interview Skills” organized by Government Arts & Commerce College, Kachhal. The objective of the session was to prepare the students to face job interviews, and to help them understand the criteria on which they would be marked, along with tips on how to handle difficult questions and salary negotiations.

Dr. Manish Pathak from Vidyabharti Trust College of MBA, Umraha guided the students in improving their confidence, grooming & etiquettes and handling potential interview questions in areas that are common to most candidates.

67 students participated in the one-day seminar on the theme “CV Writing” organized by Government Arts & Commerce College, Kachhal. The objective of the session was to familiarize the students with the latest format of CVs for job applications, and how to tailor a customized CV for each job. Common errors in CV writing were pointed out, and attention was paid to the phrasing and quantification part.

Dr. Snehal Mistry from Vidyabharti Trust College of BBA and BCA, UmraKh guided the students in creating an individual, customized CV for each job, stressing on the importance of making a good first impression on paper.

The 146 students have participated in the One Day Seminar “Interview Skill and Resume Writing” organized at Government Arts & Commerce College Kachhal. The objective of the Seminar was to provide an overview on the important aspects of Interview. To help them in understanding the change in the regulatory regime under the new policies of Corporate; to brief on important new concept introduced in the new law, challenges and opportunities arising out of the new regime etc. which would be of immense help for the faculty in their function of guiding students.

Mr. Divyesh Gandhi and Mr. Rigal Rana were invited to take the charge for the Seminar. He has covered each and every aspect on Real phenomenon of Employment. He has discussed Various Interview skills, How to dress? Which types of Question to be asked? He has also focused on preparing Resume.

Students were also appraising on the mega opportunity that has emerged out of the new regime for the new concept of various fields.

27 students attended the One-day workshop on the theme “Effective Reading Skills” organized by Government Arts & Commerce College, Kachhal, the objective of which was to help the students develop their reading skills through different techniques, to make them more employable.

Shri Rajesh Bhatt, Librarian, from Rofel MBA, Valsad, was invited to impart a session on guiding students to enhance their reading skills. The session was highly appreciated by the students as well.

The 84 students have participated in the One Day Seminar “Interview Skill and Resume Writing” and “Interpersonal skill” organized at Government Arts & Commerce College Kachhal. The objective of the Seminar was to provide an overview on the important aspects of Interview and interpersonal skill. To help them in understanding the change in the regulatory regime under the new policies of Corporate; to brief on important new concept introduced in the new law, challenges and opportunities arising out of the new regime etc. which would be of immense help for the faculty in their function of guiding students.

Dr. Jigar Parmar and Dr. Dharamraj Eknath Tembhare from GACC, Khergam guided the students in creating an individual, customized CV for each job, stressing on the importance of making a good first impression on paper.

The 69 students have participated in the One Day Seminar “Interview Skill and Resume Writing” and “Positive attitudes” organized at Government Arts & Commerce College Kachhal. The objective of the Seminar was to provide an overview on the important aspects of Interview and to develop positive attitude. To help them in understanding the change in the regulatory regime under the new policies of Corporate; to brief on important new concept introduced in the new law, challenges and opportunities arising out of the new regime etc. which would be of immense help for the faculty in their function of guiding students.

Dr. Rakeshkumar Ganvit and Dr. Rakesh kumar Nayka from GACC, Vansada guided the students in creating an individual, customized CV for each job, stressing on the importance of making a good first impression on paper and being positive in every situation.

All the programmes were very well appreciated and attended by the students. As an outcome of the Seminars, Students will benefit with knowledge.

UDISHA Co-Ordinator